NEW CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED... Pictured above is the interior of the new sanctuary of the South Bay Church of God to be dedicated today. Measuring 85 by 42 feet, the new sanctuary was designed by Louis F. Gamble and Associates. A two-story educational unit is located at the rear of the structure. By doing all the labor themselves, the congregation shaved costs from an estimated $125,000 to under $50,000.

Obituaries Pre-Easter Theme Selected By 'Y' for High Schoolers

FLORA A. KNORR

Funeral services were held in Redondo Beach yesterday for Flora Agnes Knorr, 71, of 2780 1/2 Andreo Ave. Mrs. Knorr, a resident here for about one year, died Wednesday.

She was a native of England and at one time was employed as secretary to the Church Mission of New York City. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Margaret A. Breere of Manhattan Beach, and two sisters and two brothers living in the east.

Rev. Harold E. Carlson of the North Redondo Methodist Church officiated at yesterday's services.

MARTIN L. SVITEK

Requiem Mass for Martin Ludwig Svitek, 73, of 1528 Post Ave., will be celebrated at the Catholic Church of the Nativity Monday morning at 10 by Rev. Joseph MacArdle, pastor.

Mr. Svitek, a native of Hungary, was the father of Mrs. Mary Pagac, of 1528 Post Ave., the operator of Mary's Paint Store in downtown Torrance. He had made his home here 15 years before his death Thursday.

Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel, and interment will be in Leechburg, Pa.

In addition to Mrs. Pagac, he is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Margaret Nofske of "Understanding Easter" was selected as the theme for the inter-denominational pre-Easter devotions for all high school students in Torrance. Students from the First Methodist, First Christian, and First Lutheran Churches have planned the series of morning programs beginning on Wednesday, Feb. 18 and continuing through March 18.

A free breakfast will be served at the First Methodist Church, Carson and El Prado, at 7 a.m. and the devotional period will end at 7:50 a.m. in order for the students to be on time for class.

Various women's groups in the community will prepare and serve the food. The Y's men's Club of the YMCA have provided funds for the first two breakfasts and other service

ARVID R. LEDIN

Funeral services for Arvid Rudolph Ledin, 71, of 1509 W. 223rd St., will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the First Lutheran Church with Pastor William Roderer officiating.

Mr. Ledin, a native of Minnesota, died here Friday after living in Torrance for three years. He made his home here with a daughter, Mrs. Harriet Bravick.

In addition to Mrs. Bravick, he is survived by three sons, Adrian of Sepulveda, Calif.; Vance of Oklahoma, and Charles of Illinois; and four daughters, Mrs. Gladys Carpenter, Mrs. Celeste Wiscocki, and Mrs. Ada Schlink of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Ruth Walters of Seattle.

Also surviving are two brothers, James Ledin of Harris, Minn., and Harry Ledin of Portland, Ore.; and two sisters, Mrs. Mabel Horton of Lindstrom, Minn., and Myrtle England of Portland, Ore.

Interment will be in Green Hills Memorial Park. Halverson-Leavell Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

clubs will sponsor the remaining meals.

Rev. William Schatz of the Seaside Community Church will be the first speaker on Feb. 18 and will discuss the "Triumphal Entry." Succeeding ministers will discuss other events in the last week of Jesus' life.

The First Methodist Church and the YMCA are sponsoring the devotionals and urge high school students of all faiths to be at the breakfasts.

Methodists Give $450 To New Theology School

First Methodist Church of Torrance today announced a pledge of $450 to toward development of the Southern California School of Theology in Claremont.

Rev. John L. Taylor, pastor of First Methodist Church, said the sum is the church's share of a $1 million fund campaign now being conducted among 405 Methodist churches in Southern California and Arizona.

The school, one of ten Methodist theological schools in the U. S. A., and the only one west of Denver, is in the midst of a $5 million development program at the new 15-acre site in Claremont.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY

Very dry weather has created a high fire hazard, with springs and streams generally low. Most of the trout stocked in Fulmor Lake last week were quickly caught.
